

A CATHOLIC CENTENARY.

Call for a General Congress of the Laity of the United States at Baltimore.

The Anniversary of the Establishment of the Hierarchy to Be Remembered.

Topics of General Interest to the Church to be Discussed—Opening of the Catholic University.

To the Catholics of the United States:

The centennial anniversary of the establishment of the Catholic hierarchy of the United States, which is to be celebrated with befitting pomp and ceremony under happy auspices in Baltimore, next November, may naturally be expected to bring together an imposing assemblage of the hierarchy and clergy, as well as a large concourse of the Catholic laity, who will be eager to take part in an event so interesting in itself and so impressive and suggestive in its religious and historic significance.

That the Catholic laymen should hold at the same time and place a general meeting or congress would seem most appropriate.
When the suggestion of such a meeting was happily conceived and put forth, it was everywhere met with expressions of warm approval. It was felt that a congress of the Catholics of the United States, called without reference to national or local lines, on a broad and generous platform, could not fail to be productive of good results.

It would demonstrate the unity of the entire Catholic body in all that concerns the principles of our holy religion; the harmony, mutual attachment and good will subsisting among the different orders in the church—the hierarchy, the clergy and the laity—and it would moreover afford an opportunity to testify in a public manner the loyalty of the Catholics of the United States to the constitution and laws of the land, to which they have invariably been loyal in the past and may, with equal confidence, be relied on to be faithful and devoted in the future. The advantages of such a meeting then being apparent and its opportunities most evident, there was only required the sanction of authority to justify the call for a general congress of the Catholics of the United States.

We are happy to say the project of this congress has the approval of His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons, and of other archbishops and bishops.

The preliminaries have been arranged and the congress is now accordingly called to meet in the city of Baltimore, Monday, November 11th, at 10 o'clock a.m. It is expected that the sessions will continue during two days. The local arrangements for the congress are in charge of a committee of Baltimore gentlemen.

The principal subjects for consideration and discussion have been substantially agreed on, and capable gentlemen have been invited to read papers before the congress on the topics proposed to them. General discussion of these questions will be invited, and the titles of the several papers will be duly announced beforehand. The congress is intended to be free and open to all Catholics.

To provide for due order and so that necessary regulations shall prevail, as well as for the purpose of ensuring general representation from all parts of the country, it has been decided by the committee in charge to issue cards of admission to the floor of the hall, which cards will entitle the person named thereon to the full privileges of the congress. These cards will be placed in the hands of the bishop or administrator of each diocese, Catholics who desire to attend the congress will make application accordingly to the ordinary of their diocese for the necessary introduction.

Coincidentally with the celebration of the Catholic centennial and the meeting of the Catholic congress, will occur the formal opening of the Catholic University of America at Washington, an institution in which the Catholic laity of the United States feel the deepest concern, and to the future of which they look with hope and pride. This event would in itself be of sufficient general importance to bring together a large number of leading Catholic laymen, who have already signally demonstrated their interest in this great undertaking.

The meeting of the Catholic congress, therefore, under the conditions proposed, will be seen to be in every respect timely.
The result of the meeting and the effect of the deliberations and discussions cannot but prove most useful and beneficial in every respect.

The people of the United States lately celebrated by appropriate religious and public services, and universal rejoicing, the centenary of the formal establishment of our free government. Catholics justly shared in the general joy, as they have likewise participated in the advantages our admirable constitution guarantees to all citizens, especially the protection of civil and religious liberty, the seed of which was first planted and nourished in "Catholic Maryland."

With eminent fitness, therefore, may we now call our Catholic brethren together to join in celebrating another anniversary of exceptional interest to recall the memory of the devoted and patriotic bishop whose zeal for religion and love of liberty have won for his memory the respect and admiration of every American; to testify the unity of their religious faith, their steady adherence to true principles, and their unwavering attachment to the constitution and laws of this free and prosperous country.

A Woman's Discovery.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made, and that, too, by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking the first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamrick & Co. of Shelby, N. C. Get a free trial bottle at R. S. Hale & Co.'s drug store.

anteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale

Croup Can Be Prevented.

We want every mother to know that croup can be prevented. There is no question about this; as it has been done in thousands of cases, and you may depend upon it that when a child takes the croup, it is wholly owing to the negligence of its parents. True croup never appears without due and timely warning; a few hours, or a day or two before the attack, the child becomes hoarse. This hoarseness is the first indication of croup, and is a sure sign that croup is to follow, unless promptly and properly treated. The free use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed with each bottle, under the heading "to prevent croup," will dispel all symptoms of the disease. The first sign of croup, hoarseness, may be overlooked by young mothers or those not familiar with the disease. Under such circumstances, or when not properly treated, the hoarseness becomes more marked and the child shows symptoms of having taken cold, then a peculiar rough cough is developed.
Even at this stage Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will prevent the croup, but after the cough has developed, the croup is liable to appear at any moment. The proper way, is to keep a bottle of this remedy at hand. It costs but fifty cents, and only a few doses, or, at most, not over one-third of a bottle is required to dispel all symptoms of the disease. Can you afford to risk so much for so little? There is not the least danger in giving this remedy in large and frequent doses, which are always required, as it contains no injurious substance. As proof of this fact, we refer to Mr. John L. Olson of Des Moines, Ia., whose 10-months-old boy drank the entire contents of a fifty cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without the least injury. For sale by H. M. Parchen & Co.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Be Sure

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. A Boston lady, whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:
"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me that would last longer; that I might take it on ten "ays' trial; that if I did not like it I need not say anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I had taken Hood's Sarsaparilla, knew what it was, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other.

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly tion. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." Mrs.
